The President's Message

Ladies,

It has been great enjoying the cooler weather for the past few days.

I hope you are all sharing the information on our fundraiser, Wine & Paint on Saturday, November 2nd at 6PM. This is always a fun event, even if you're not an artist. Please remind your friends that the $45 includes a free glass of wine or whatever they would like to drink. There will be "goodies" to munch on before we pretend we're Matisse. ☺

If anyone would like to make a basket to auction off at the fundraiser, that would be great. These are very popular when offered. We can supply the basket if you want to supply the goods to be auctioned.

Please don't forget to feed the piggies. This is our fundraiser for Christmas presents for the families we "adopt" from the Family Justice Center and fulfill their Christmas wish list. Christmas is coming up fast and we need to make sure we have the money for the families.

We will have a box out again for your suggestions at the November General meeting.

See you in a couple of weeks.

Pat Ogren, President

The Dean's Message

Hi!

Thanksgiving greetings to you all, a little early. The next two months will be busy ones for us but it is important to relax and enjoy what the holidays have in store for us.

First things first: don't forget to make your reservations for our November general meeting on the 4th. We will be honoring our veteran members; the ever popular Jay Munns will be our entertainment.

Friday, November 18th, is the CFWC Orange District Conference in Los Alamitos. This should be a really interesting meeting as the guest speaker will be FBI agents to talk about protecting yourself from spam. Don't forget to RSVP to me by October 28th.

Our next big event is the always fun and successful Wine & Paint night on Saturday, November 2nd at 6PM. Please bring your family and friends. Space is limited so get your RSVP in.

I want to encourage you to make your donation to Jalora's Piggies. The funds are used to buy Christmas gifts for the deserving families from the Family Justice Center. Please be as generous as you can.

See you at the club house! And don't forget our pledge, "forget not to be kind."

Your Dean,

Mimi Peralta

BUFFET LUNCH CHOICE

CHICKEN: Lemon-herb chicken with scalloped potatoes
VEGE STACK: White rice, vegetables, and marinara sauce

Both lunches include house salad, rolls, roasted veges, and chocolate cake.

GUEST SPEAKERS:

"Protect Yourself and Your Club from SCAMS!"

Our speakers will be two special agents from the FBI who are experts on this topic.

It seems like every day someone is trying to trick you into giving up your hard-earned money. Scammers try to reach you by phone, computer, text, email, mail, your front door, and every other way they can reach you to try to separate you from your money. These professionals, Supervisory Special Agent Brett Chabot and Special Agent Daniel Clift, will help all of us learn how to protect ourselves from being fooled. Come prepared with your questions.

Club RSVPs are due to Pam Pearson, p.pearson@earthlink.net by October 29, 5:00 pm. No late RSVPs, please.

SECTIONS POSTPONED!

Please note that due to proximity to both Thanksgiving and the holidays, both the Hand and Food and Crafts are suspended for November and December. They will resume in January.

Please bring your items for the "Grab & Go" to the November meeting.
And, don't forget our book exchange.

JALORA'S PIGGIES!

Please don't forget to feed Jalora's Piggies in the piggy bank on the luncheon tables!

Your donation goes towards Christmas gifts for deserving children and adults in Anaheim through the Family Justice Center.

This is one of our long-term projects. We need your help because we've had few donations to the Piggies this year.
